Rejection criteria:

- The company participating in the tender must sign and stamp each page before submitting the files. if not will be rejected.

- If the financial and technical offers are merged and sent through one email, the offer will be rejected.

- Each company is allowed to submit only one offer. Additionally, if it is found that two companies owned by the same individual submit separate offers, both offers will be rejected.

- The bidder shall not use an external link to submit the offers, such as an online drive; all tender documents shall be attached by your sending email, if not will be rejected.

The bids must be for the exact items as described. No substitutes of the items themselves will be accepted; however, alternative models are acceptable if matching the requested specifications.

A certificate of origin (CO) is required (it's mandatory for the export work) for equipment awarded. The bids must include the bidder's acknowledgment that the CO is available and will be provided at the time of shipment.

If chosen, supplier(s) must provide a sample of the equipment, or MG staff will conduct a site visit to the supplier office to make a physical check. The item must be the same as the final equipment delivered after purchase. This includes the manufacturer name, country of origin, type, and name of equipment.

MedGlobal reserves the right to split, accept, or reject any or all the offers without assigning any reason whatsoever and is not bound to accept the lowest bid.

By signing and stamping the ITT all possible claims that may arise during the signing the contract will not be legal even though it is clearly mentioned inside the Country and according to the law Regarding Tenders and Auction.
Finally, in case of selection, the bidder's invoice should include:

1. Item description and quantities as per the Contract/Purchase Agreement.
2. Item batch number, manufacturing, and warranty duration of each item.

All clarifications and questions should be addressed to: procurement.sd@medglobal.org
Yours sincerely,
MedGlobal Tender Committee
